

Swiss NanoConvention 2012

The Swiss NanoConvention is the prime showcase for nanotechnology in Switzerland, jointly organized by the who-is-who in the Swiss nano scene

The Swiss NanoConvention 2012 will be a platform for connecting people, networking, debating and exchanging ideas – or even generating new ones.

Focus of the Convention

Nano for Energy, Life sciences, Computer sciences and Consumer products. Another focus will be the potential risks associated with free nanoparticles, and how society sees and handles these issues.

Parallel events at the Swiss NanoConvention

- iCan Contest Swiss Qualifications
- CTI Micro Nano Event
- NanoCom Investment Forum
- NanoPublic session on Safety issues
- NanoDiara Workshop (FP7 Project)
- Euresearch International FP7 Brokerage Event

Venue

Beaulieu Lausanne Congress & Exhibition center
